

Succession Planning – Ensuring Business Continuity Post COVID-19

Webinar Presenter:

Errol van Staden
Business Psychologist and Talent
Management Advisor

A seasoned business psychologist, who has worked in the talent management domain for the past 35 years in different sectors and regions, Errol engages widely with CEOs and senior executives on the subject of talent management – from strategy and risk perspectives.

Errol has a specific interest in:

- The design of talent strategies
- Talent analytics
- Succession planning, and
- Leader effectiveness.

Errol is the Managing Director of the Talent Institute, a boutique professional services firm.

Date: Wednesday, 8 July 2020
Time: 13:00 pm GST
Duration: 40 minutes plus Q and A.

About Webinar:

The COVID19- pandemic has illustrated the importance of having a business continuity and succession plan that accounts for emergency and disaster events.

Now is the time to put one in place, or to re-assess and redesign an existing plan as a New Normal sets in. This succession plan should be closely aligned to an adjusted business strategy and the challenges the strategy and New Normal pose to current and future leaders.

Benefits of Attending:

- Understand the context that impacts succession planning
- Learn about a structured methodology for approaching this strategically vital business process
- Explore a leader assessment and development framework
- Gaze into the crystal ball – The possible impact of a rapidly changing World of Work

Register: cts@informa.com

Brought to you by informa connect